Recommendation Factors

Our steering committee researched and discussed each candidate. These recommendations are the result of that effort. For more info on each candidate, please visit our website

Mike Bordes Incumbent, stalwart supporter of keeping Gunstock open, and supportive of a sensible county budget. Concerned with environmental threats to our lakes.

Sheri Minor Owns and manages rental housing in the greater Laconia area. Little profile in local papers on positions, but does not appear to be an extremist. Did not participate in Laconia candidate forum.

Jon Hildreth Laconia-based businessman who has actively campaigned, and actively worked to protect Gunstock as a volunteer. His positions on other county issues are reasonable and responsible.

Erika Gray New candidate, has worked hard to reach out to voters, sensible positions on county issues, well-spoken and thoughtful at candidate forum.

Steven T. Bogert Helped return County Delegation to oversight role for county budget, Laconia city councilor, helped defeat anti-Gunstock NH House bill.

Wendy Chase Former state rep, reached out to groups and agencies to prepare for campaign, board member for nonprofits. Reasonable and responsible on county issues.

Richard Littlefield Libertarian-leaning candidate who questionably aligned himself with fringe candidates Dawn Johnson and Erica Golter in 2022, and supported disgraced Delegation chair Michael Sylvia until well into the Gunstock crisis.

Charlie St. Clair Well-known businessman and organizer of Bike Week, knows most key decision makers, committed to Laconia's future.

Bill Wright We remain neutral on incumbent Bill Wright

Michael Muzzey Former banker serving as county treasurer for over a decade without fuss or chaos. Reasonable and responsible track record.

Alan Glassman Conservative incumbent who returned as a write-in to fend off Norm Silber in Primary. Reasonable and responsible advisor to county residents in probate matters.

Peter Spanos Recommended: Incumbent Commissioner Spanos helped to stabilize the county budget in 2023 after years of mismanagement by libertarian-led County Delegation and was strongly pro-Gunstock in 2022.
